

Hermleigh Community Center Rental Agreement

Advance reservations for rentals scheduled up to three years in the future are permitted. Payment must be made in full at the time of booking to secure the rental for a specified date or weekend. The renter shall retain the first right of refusal for the same rental period in subsequent years, provided they meet all booking and payment requirements within the designated timeframe. Additionally, renters may extend their reservation for up to three years beyond the original rental period, subject to availability. The rental rate will remain fixed for the first three years, after which rates may be subject to change for any extended periods.

Exceptions apply to funeral-related rentals, which may be booked without prior reservation and without a fee, subject to availability.
